BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN

The Financial Situation in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct 3—Affairs in financial circles continue to improve. The closing day of the three days grace accorded to brokers in making up private settlements brings with it no disaster beyond the suspension of the small broker house of Albert Coole which has exercised no influence on the market. Only one thousand shares of various stocks were sold out under the rule for delinquent parties. There were considerable purchases to day of dividend paying securities on European account. Savings banks and investors were free buyers of Government bonds and mercantile obligations are being met with promptness.

The Bulletin announces the suspension of Peake Opdyke & Co a large dry goods house. Their liabilities amount to 2 500 000.

No bank statement will be issued to day. The specie shipments were $100 000 in silver bars.

Robinson & Suydam J Zaverd & Co, and G White who temporarily suspended have settled up to-day and were admitted to the Stock Exchange.

Proposition from Jay Cooke & Co to their Creditors.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct 3—It is stated from Washington, on authority of ex-Governor Cooke, that the firm of Jay Cooke & Co will soon make a proposition to their creditors for the purpose of enabling it to resume business. Members of the firm have pooled their private property and personal assets, and will place it at the command of their creditors in liquidation of their indebtedness. They propose to pay every cent they owe both principal and interest. Details of the proposition will be made public in due time.

Lecture by Bradlaugh, the English Radical, in Steinway Hall

NEW YORK, Oct. 4—Bradlaugh in his lecture at Steinway Hall last night had a large audience, and was listened to attentively, and greeted with frequent applause. He stated that one object of his visit to America was to enable English Republicans and workingmen to obtain a fair hearing from the American public which they could not obtain in England, and from American newspapers that unprejudiced treatment that English papers would not accord. At the close of his lecture an English clergyman named Brynety stepped upon the platform and began to dispute the assertions of Bradlaugh, advancing arguments to refute them. His language was not altogether courteous, and he was greeted with mingled hisses and cries of 'Go on.'

It is stated that last night while Bradlaugh was speaking in behalf of English working men, a letter from him was read at a meeting of the Workingmen's Association, declining an invitation to address them on the ground that he was under engagement to the Literary Bureau, and could only speak at such times and places as they might agree upon.

Funeral of Rear Admiral John A. Winslow.

BOSTON, Oct. 3—The funeral services of the late Rear Admiral Winslow, took place to-day in St John's Episcopal Church Boston Highlands. Five Hundred Klamath Indians Witness the Execution

The Families of the Condemned Indians also Witness the Horrid Spectacle

Full Particulars of the Great Tragedy.

The Sheriff of Jackson Co Makes Application for the Custody of the Indicted Indians but is Refused

Hooka Jim and the Remnant of the Modocs to be Transported to Wyoming

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT)

JACKSONVILLE Oct 4—After a hard day's ride of 98 miles I reached this place to send you the following in seven hours from the time of leaving Fort Klamath.

This Friday morning was a beautiful day and nothing particularly indicated this as hangman's day except the scaffold—a strong and heavy framework of pine timber which stood with its six ropes dangling loosely in the fresh morning air. It is a structure of 30 feet in length 20 in height and the drop on which the victims stood is 9 feet clear from the ground. It is on the open prairie north of the Fort facing north and is braced and bolted together very strongly.

All the arrangements for the execution had been admirably made by Post Adjutant Kingsbury and precisely at 9 A M the troops were formed on the parade ground the artillery and cavalry being mounted when they took up their line of march to the guard house where a wagon drawn by four horses and containing the prisoners took its position in the column. Arriving at the gallows the military took up its position on three sides of the gallows leaving an open space disposed of as follows: Lieut G W Kingsbury Post Adjutant immediately in front of the scaffold about twenty feet distant on his left the Interpreter. Directly in the rear of the Adjutant about twenty paces distant was the Commanding Officer General Frank Wheaton and one pace on his left Lieut Adams A A G of the District of the Lakes, the three Medical officers of the Post and the Post Chaplain. On the right and rear of the Commanding Officer were several officers casually at the Post and a number of citizens. The reporters occupied a desk to the extreme left of the Medical staff. Six mounted patrols passed up and down the rear of the line on each side to keep the over curious in position of the raised platform. In the rear of the drop were stationed the three enlisted men immediately charged with the execution of the Modoc prisoners under the direction of the Officer of the Day who stood directly in the center of the platform.

Captain Jack stood on the extreme right end of the scaffold with Sconchin next to him while Boston Charley occupied the extreme left with Black Jim next to him. This left two places in the center vacant—Barncho and Slolux having been ordered returned to the stockade a short time before the execution, an order having been received by the Commanding Officer from the President commuting their sentence to imprisonment for life and designating Alcatraz California, as the place of their future confinement. Boston Charley and Black Jim were led on the scaffold first and Sconchin next. They took their places with apparent indifference, evidently resolving to die as brave as they had lived. Jack went easily up the stairway but looked wicked and miserable. Their manacles had been removed but their arms were securely pinioned.

At 9 40 the interpreters Capt O C Applegate and D Hill explained to the culprits the nature of the order to be read to them by the Adjutant and at 10 A M that officer read the order promulgating the sentence of the Commission and the President's order thereon with the orders of the Secretary of War and the Department Commander in the premises. The two reprieved prisoners Barncho and Slolux were standing on the ground in front of the scaffold and under guard. The reading occupied ten minutes. The order of commutation evidently pleased Slolux and Barncho when explained to them and they stepped lightly on their return to the stockade. The Chaplain then offered a fervid and earnest prayer when at 10 10 the fatal nooses were placed around the necks of the victims. It was found necessary in this part of the ceremony to cut off a little of Jack's long hair it being in the way of the rope. Capt Hayes then bade farewell to the prisoners and the black caps were drawn over the heads of all the culprits. At 10 15 they stood on the drop when the rope was cut at a signal made by Capt Hayes handkerchief. The bodies swung round and round several times. Jack and Jim apparently dying easily while Boston and Sconchin underwent terrible convulsions. The two former seemed to die almost instantly, while the latter drew up their legs and let them fall repeatedly. At 10 28 their pulses were felt by Capt Hayes and as I write this they were swinging lifeless in mid air. As the drop fell with a terrible deadly thug four poor and wretched human beings fell into eternity and a half smothered cry of horror went up from the crowd of over 500 Klamath Indians who were witnesses of the scene. Wails of deep and bitter anguish issued from the direction of the stockade from which the wives and children of the poor fellows had a fair view of the shocking scene. The coffins six in number had been placed directly in front of the gallows two or three destined to be unoccupied as the order commuting sentence of the two returned to the stockade had only been received at 10 o'clock last evening—and provisions had also been made for their burial.

Application was made this morning by the Sheriff of Jackson county for the custody of the Indians indicted by the Grand Jury of that county but the order was refused by Gen Wheaton.

Second Dispatch

The dead Indians were buried just west of the stockade. An examination showed that only the necks of Jack and Black Jim were broken. Hooka Jim and the remainder of the Modoc tribe are to go to Wyoming within ten days in charge of government troops. Sheriff McKenzy's demand for Hooka Jim will [illegible] was refused [illegible] the writ of habeas [illegible] Judge Prim.

Kit Matthews rode from Fort Klamath to Jacksonville in six hours fifty five minutes using three horses a distance of 92 miles. He beat all competitors by 30 minutes. There were thirteen horses against him.

The peaches are as good as gone up, apples are considerably injured, pears the least of all. Mr Hannah says his loss is equal to $2 000. Messrs Walling Davis and many others are large losers besides many people had enough for their own use that are now gone up.

SUSPENSION OF FISK AND HATCH

HOW A GREAT FAILURE IS ANNOUNCED IN THE GOLD ROOM

When the President's gavel dropped again their tongues did not stop wagging. Rap rap rap went the resounding wooden hammer.

"I want you all to understand," said the President when partial quietude had been gained, "that I don't call you to order without meaning it. Hold your tongues!"

The brokers laughed a little at this and then grew soberly expectant as the President held up a note and prepared to read it:

"Owing to the widespread want of confidence caused by the failure of well known firms around the President and to advances made by us to railroad companies upon which we cannot immediately realize we are unable to meet the heavy demands upon us and are compelled to announce our suspension."

The brokers breathlessly awaited the reading of the name signed to the note. The perfect silence was in striking contrast to the previous uproar. After a pause the President read on:

"Although we have [illegible] settled [illegible] with [illegible] the [illegible] this [illegible]

[illegible] brokers [illegible] with [illegible] awaited the name.

"Yours respectively [illegible] Fisk & Hatch."

A prolonged whistle [illegible] was the [illegible] reception of the startling news and that was exactly expressive of the general [illegible]. The announcement of failures had been expected but not of a firm which had been [illegible] the [illegible] soundness.—N. Y. Sun.

The uninsured sufferers by the big Baltimore fire propose to sue the city for sums lost on the ground that local ordinances forbidding the burning of shavings within the city limits were not enforced.

OREGON

Col [illegible] Saxe delivered the address at the Jackson County Fair.

We learn that Dr Ballard of Lebanon is very low with typhoid fever.

Gov Grover will speak at Hillsboro Washington county on October 16th.

The first number of the Baker City Herald will appear Thursday October 9th.

A good deal of sickness is reported throughout Linn county, principally fevers.

A new and fine district school house is under contract and being built in Baker City.

Work of pile-driving for the Astoria Farmers Warehouse is progressing as fast as possible.

Col Cates of the Board of Equalization has returned to Salem and the Board is again in running order.

The price of wheat in Salem is still 90 cents. Not much is doing however in the market for lack of coin.

The Penitentiary sawmill at Salem was completed and started Thursday. It will be employed to cut timber for the State House.

A Eugene paper says 'Oregon's great living curiosity, Wrestling Joe,' has been begging through our streets for the past few days.

The Baker county jail now contains eleven boarders—six white men three Chinamen and two Indians committed for various offenses.

Last Saturday five teams ran away from the Farmers warehouse at Eugene City. The damage was the almost total demolition of one wagon.

Gov Grover has appointed the following Notaries Public: David Drew, Coquille City Coos county and Frank M Carter Newton, Benton county.

A lyceum and literary club has been organized in Eugene and is now in successful operation. It is a good thing, and we hope will become a permanent institution.

In a telegram to J D Coughlin to Hon James D Fay it is stated that Col J N T Miller's horse Brick Pomeroy won the trotting race at Yreka in three straight heats, making the fast time of 2 45.

There came near being an extensive fire last Saturday on the Fair Grounds near Salem. The fire was set in the grass, and a high wind springing up afterward it required hard work to keep it within bounds.

The bridge across the Yamhill will not be built this season. Posters for proposals were posted up in different parts of the county, but only one was received, and the price was considered too high and it was not accepted.

The Corvallis Democrat of last Saturday says: During the week an unprecedented large quantity of grain has been received at our several warehouses. The total amount now stored in this city is not far short of 150,000 bushels.

At present there is but little wheat changing hands in Benton county. The farmers of Benton, Polk and a portion of Lane, are without means of transportation until the river rises, and hence wheat buyers are offering only nominal prices.

Last fall Mr Snelling, of Lane county, obtained of Bristow & Co flax seed to sow forty acres. He has just finished harvesting and delivering his crop, which amounted to 1,000 bushels machine measure, for which he receives $1 70 per bushel.

The Eugene Journal says "the engineers on the railroad seem to delight in killing and crippling cattle and other stock. A few days ago they killed a fine cow for Mr Wiscarson, two miles above town. Several smaller animals have been killed near this place recently."

Prof Clayton of Salt Lake, and Joseph Potts Superintendent of the Eberhart mine, were in Roseburg last week on their way to Randolph Coos county for the purpose of examining the Black Sand Mines. Prof Clayton is one of the most scientific miners on this coast.

The price of wheat has declined to 70 cents, and there are no sales of importance at that figure. Farmers are not disposed to sell at such a price after having been offered from 85 to 90 cents fourteen days ago, and even if they were buyers are not anxious. So says a Eugene paper.

Quite a fracas occurred at McMinnville on Monday evening of last week. The constable attempted to quell the disturbance and got a beautiful head put on him as did also a number of others. The cause of the disturbance as near as we could ascertain was a surplus of whisky.

Lieut Winters has been detailed on special duty to examine into affairs and report if the presence and service of the troops at Camp Warner are necessary or if the garrison shall be concentrated at Camp Bidwell Cal, or a post built in a more advantageous locality, if such be found.

The Statesman says: The Oregon State Agricultural Society and the city are having the road leading to the Fair Grounds and track well sprinkled so there will be no annoyance from dust during the Fair. With the good weather we are almost certain to have, the public may well expect a lively week.

Mr J G Clark of Alsea, informs the Gazette that the prospects of that valley are brightening. They now have a good sawmill and gristmill in operation. About 20 000 bushels of grain has been threshed in the valley this season. Several families have recently settled in the valley and others are looking for locations.

Mr H J Stevenson of Portland has entered upon a contract to make and plat a full and complete survey of the harbor of Astoria for use of the Common Council. This survey will embrace everything required to give a perfect knowledge of the harbor as to depth of water frontage for wharf improvements etc. The work has been under way for several days past.

The [illegible] says: Mr Daniel Clark Master of the newly instituted State Grange of Patrons of Husbandry is now on his way as fraternal delegate to the State Grange of California which meets soon at San Jose. Mr Clark is one of the best representatives of the farming interests of Oregon, a man of energy and character well known and respected at home and wherever known here. [illegible] President of our State Agricultural Society, and [illegible] among those who desire to build up and improve the condition of agriculture.

The following is [illegible] taxable property as assessed in Lake [illegible] county for the year 1873: Acres of land [illegible]; number of horses 910; number of cattle [illegible]; number of sheep 1,586 (?); number of swine [illegible]; value of land, $24 714; value of town lots $110 240; value of personal property $425,075; gross value of all property $87,020 (?); indebtedness and exemption $332,091; total of taxable property $639,038. The County Court levied on the above amount of $639 038 a tax of three cents on the dollar which will amount to the sum of $19 171 14 as the tax levied for the year 1873.

Daniel Clark Master of the State Grange of Patrons of Husbandry, of Oregon has commissioned the following named persons as his Deputies to organize Granges: For Douglas, and the counties south of it I M Guney, Ten Mile P O; Polk county James Tatom Dixie; Lane H N Hill Junction; Multnomah Jacob Johnson East Portland; Clackamas F Forbes Eagle Creek; Benton, A. On last Thursday at 3 o'clock P M., the barn and residence of Mr James Sk[illegible], in Brewster valley Douglas county was entirely consumed by fire, the only property saved being two beds. The fire was communicated from a large kettle in which they were [illegible] wheat, to feed hogs, to the barn and [illegible] anything could be done the whole place was in ashes. The barn was full of hay and contained in addition the wheat that he had purchased for fattening his hogs, the harness for his team and 1,000 pounds of flour, the property of M Eberline, which was in store at the time. This calamity is [illegible] by the fact that some six months ago, Mr. Sk[illegible] was burned out, losing everything he had, including $250 in greenbacks.

MORE OF THE QUESTION ABOUT THE COUNTY SEAT OF KLICKITAT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

At the last general election held in the Territory of Washington, November 5th, 1872, a vote was taken on the location of the county seat of Klickitat county. The vote was [illegible] in accordance with an act of the Territorial Legislature. The question was duly [illegible] by the proper authorities. Rockland and Goldendale were the only places voted for. The County Commissioners, at the [illegible] time, counted the vote and the town of Rockland was found to have a majority of one, and was declared the county seat by the Commissioners.

Subsequently a complaint was made at the office of the Probate Judge, of illegal votes being cast for Rockland. A court day was appointed for investigation of the [illegible] and [illegible] examination of the [illegible] found that seven (7) non [illegible] of [illegible] county had voted for Rockland for the seat. Amongst the non-[illegible] it appeared that one William Connell, of [illegible] Oregon, had cast a vote for Rockland. [illegible] the facts of the above voters being [illegible] dents there can be no doubt for by the affidavits of [illegible] the truth is established.

On examination of the original act [illegible] ting the location of the county [illegible] [illegible] that the intention was that the seat should be located by [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] out the [illegible] [illegible] the county seat by a [illegible] of six.

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 6, 1873.

THE PARTY MANAGERS AND THEIR WORK

The Albany Convention will long be remembered for its new departure. It met to perform certain specific duties, and failed in every one of them. The Republican party was dominant in the nation, and as shown by the last election, the controlling power in the State. The Democracy—discouraged by defeats, torn by angry and contending factions, divided alike by differences of opinion and irreconcilable rivalries and ambitions—were unable to present a name which could unite their broken columns and lead them to victory.

All that was required at the hands of the Albany Convention was to give the party an ordinary epitome of Republican principles, and nominate a man of fair ability and pure character, and go to the country trusting to the momentum which the party had gained by its triumphs in peace and war, to the attachments, born of its mighty achivements, which bound its voters to its policy and its future, and there could have been no question as to the result.

But let us see what these magnates really did do. They constructed a platform not particularly objectionable, but of meaningless platitudes, touching no vital subject of the hour, and for all practical purposes destitute of the breath of life. But this mattered little. This Convention met as the representative assembly of the Republicans of the State. What they performed they did as a representative body, and confessedly by their own words, they spoke for and attempted to bind the Republican voters of the State, and by no [illegible] of words can the responsibility be avoided that what was done, and all that was done while in Convention assembled, was representative in character. On any other hypothesis parties could not be held to any responsibility whatever. The first imperative duty of a convention, is to do no wrong, either to the country [illegible] it would govern, or to the party which has placed its interest and its [illegible] in its hands. A convention has no [illegible] to wantonly lay the party open to [illegible]; it has no right to raise outside [illegible] on which its own members are divided, and which can have no possible [illegible] to the business it has been [illegible] to perform. [illegible] has no right to justify or apologise [illegible] person who is amenable to criticism [illegible] of morals, or the laws of [illegible]. But in all these counts this [illegible] was guilty without question. [illegible] the country; it degraded the [illegible] opened a wide, defenceless [illegible] where its enemies might enter; it [illegible] and intolerant [illegible] of its followers; and, finally, [illegible] this series of blunders [illegible] it provided a solution of [illegible] in a man who, by his own confession, had openly, knowingly, within [illegible] the [illegible] by the resolution [illegible] lived in utter [illegible] of the plain written laws [illegible]. And yet these men pretend [illegible] the Republican party. Believing [illegible] and [illegible] and con[illegible] to act from [illegible] than themselves. [illegible] to themselves the high prerogative of party jurisdiction, spurning all [illegible], they acted as if the Republican [illegible] with its historic [illegible], and as we [illegible] grander future, was [illegible] to register [illegible] decrees. Think of a convention [illegible] Credit Mobilier and back-pay [illegible] holy name of morality, and in the [illegible] throwing, not the mantle of [illegible] but the gaudy drapery of admiration [illegible] compared with which Credit [illegible] and back-pay were lofty and [illegible]. But in all candor we must say that [illegible] the [illegible] wrought, we have a [illegible] for the audacity which [illegible] to demand, and the crawling [illegible] which led the Convention to pass [illegible] of mingled bounce and [illegible]. The inevitable result is before [illegible] the party prostrate before its foes. [illegible] of ability or character dares to [illegible] a Republican constituency so foully [illegible]. The [illegible] authors of this resolution [illegible] not defend it, and the strange [illegible] is presented of a great party, of [illegible] numbers, commanding [illegible] ability, of resources ample, of [illegible] achieved, if prudently husbanded, sufficient for the century, placed [illegible] and at once out of the canvass; [illegible] dumb, its movements paralyzed, [illegible] good name as a jewel thrown before [illegible], and yet these men who have such [illegible] ability in making a great party a [illegible] one, pretend to be leaders of men [illegible] parties. And it cannot be denied that the Albany Convention has achieved, and [illegible] for a long time receive, a place in the [illegible] of men. Will it ever be forgotten?

A SUICIDAL POLICY.

The railway managers of Minnesota and Wisconsin, with an audacity truly astounding in view of the present excited [illegible] of public feeling on the subject of [illegible], a few days ago issued the following order:

> On and after the 12th day of September 1873, the tolls for carrying wheat from the different points in Minnesota to Milwaukee or Chicago, will be increased three cents per bushel.

As was to be expected the edict raised a storm of denunciation about the ears of the managers and papers which had before that time been remarkably conservative on the railway question at once joined in the outcry against the imposition with denunciations whose fierceness quite made up for any former delinquencies. The St. Paul Press, for instance, condemns "the wanton and reckless oppressiveness of this decree of spoliation" and characterizes it as "an insolent defiance of the people." We can conceive of but one ground upon which such an increase of tariff would be justifiable, and that is: Such a decrease in the amount of freight transported as would necessitate an advance in the tariff to pay the costs of transportation. But we are assured by leading journals of the States referred to that, there [illegible] no such decrease. On the contrary, the [illegible] of the [illegible] year are taxing the railways to their utmost capacity, while the companies have added largely to their cars and rolling stock. It is even stated that they have not cars enough to move the grain which overflows their warehouses.

It is not strange that when such arbitrary exactions are made simply because those making them have the power to enforce them, the indignation of those who are oppressed should assume a violent form. It is such indecent extortion as that above cited that has caused the grave financial difficulties through which Eastern capital is just now passing. Attempts have been made by some short-sighted or subsidized journals to fasten the responsibility for the recent panic upon the people—the farming communities—of the West. Such efforts are ineffective at the best, because the candid inquirer will go back of the fury of the oppressed to the first cause of that anger. The oppressor is always found to be the railway. There is little charity to be wasted upon them. More than that, for all the evils they have brought upon themselves there are to be found corresponding injuries to commerce, national credit, and the liberal scheme of internal improvements, through the operation of which they have existence. The corporations are for the present masters of the situation. But some day there must needs come a terrible reckoning. And in that day the protests of these despots who have hitherto entrenched themselves behind the wall and moat of chartered privilege, will be powerless to avert worse disasters than any that has yet befallen.

AN INGENIOUS SUGGESTION.

Just when the panic in New York city had reached fever heat, when clearing house officials were vexing their overworked brains with grave questions of expediency, and all Wall street seemed ready to crash into the yawning abyss of bankruptcy, that versatile, volatile sheet, the New York Herald, calmly and complacently presented the following ingenious plan for the restoration of the equal poise of finance:

> Every effort must now be made to avert disaster and to sustain the credit of the nation. Moderation and wisdom will accomplish both results; but they may be materially aided by a fresh illustration of the magnanimity of the President at this time. This is a grand opportunity for General Grant to cap the climax of a career already as splendid as Washington's, by an open declaration that he cannot become a party to the crimes and machinations of mere politicians or of political and financial adventurers in their efforts to destroy. He cannot better do this, than by an absolute refusal to accept a renomination for the Presidency. If the announcement of such a purpose follow closely upon his splendid course in regard to the financial policy of the Government in this panic and his coolness when menaced by the dangers of the situation, it will make him a grander hero than he was proclaimed on the day of Lee's surrender. His efforts to avert bankruptcy now make his war upon armed rebellion shine with a new glory and establish for him a new claim upon the confidence of the people. Nothing remains but this crowning act to make his career as round and perfect as a star.

One cannot help admiring the wonderful "cheek" that was required for such a suggestion as that. How the extraordinary measure thus mapped out for President Grant could in any way affect the critical situation in New York, is one of the mysteries that will forever lie hidden in the convolutions of the genius who set the eager nostrils of Democracy on the scent of Cæsarism. Perhaps the Herald went mad in the great panic.

AN INSUFFICIENT ANSWER.

To our charge that Senator Mitchell has been neglecting his duties as a member of the Senate Committee on Transportation, the Bulletin responds that it is simply "vulgar abuse" in a public journal to call attention to the shortcomings of the people's servants. So thought Boss Tweed, and so thinks every convicted delinquent. It sounds very prettily to talk about "scurrility" and "defamation," when the official character of a Senator is under discussion, but not even the brazen-faced apologist for crime, who utters the fragile evasion, can satisfy the people of Oregon that their interests are receiving that attention which Mr. Mitchell, as the attorney in the United States Senate for Mr. Holladay, could give them. If the Senator doesn't want to go to California because Mary Jane is living in Santa Barbara, why doesn't the Bulletin say so?

A PLAIN STATEMENT.

The Bulletin, with a shameless persistency that betrays the adversary sore-taxed, continues to repeat the falsehood that the OREGONIAN is urging Republicans to vote for Nesmith. We say again what we have frequently said before: that it is not necessary for Republicans to vote for Mr. Nesmith in order to defeat the conspiracy of the office holders' ring and to satisfy their own consciences. On the contrary, we advise "a wise and masterly inactivity." That inactivity in refusing to vote for the nominee of a packed convention will be wise because it will illustrate a genuine desire to reform the crooked ways into which the organization has been led by scheming and selfish politicians; and it will be masterly—as the Bulletin will observe, if it will study the returns of next Monday's election.

Wagner, the Isle of Shoals murderer, seems to be almost another Casper Hauser. It will be remembered that when he escaped some months since he allowed himself to be recaptured, remarking that he was tired of "the country grub he had been getting at farm houses." Another of his freaks is thus related by the Boston Advertiser: "Wagner, the Isle of Shoals murderer, dug out of his cell on Friday night and obtained an entrance into the cell of John Curtis of Biddeford. Once there he went to work on the lock, sprang back the bolt and stepped out into the corridor, and thence to a cell occupied by three women, where he operated on the lock and walked in, closing the door after him. He remained there until 6 o'clock in the morning, when the jailer found that the door had been tampered with and inquired the reason of the women. They denied all knowledge of the affair and eventually Wagner was found still in jail."

Carleton, cashier of the Union Trust Company of New York City, which suspended in the recent panic is defaulter to the amount of $400,000. In an interview with a Tribune reporter Dr. Carleton, the young man's father, said that his son, since the death of his wife, (which occurred three years ago,) had been [illegible]. He had frequently found him weeping without any apparent cause. On the morning of the great crash, Dr. Carleton had a conversation with his son, wherein he counseled him "to keep cool and not get excited." In the interview he said: "Finally, just before noon Charley went and got his hat, saying to me, 'You must excuse me, father, but it is necessary for me to go out a few moments. I will be back very soon.' Supposing that he was going out on business, I did not attempt to stop him. After waiting some time for him to return, I went away." "Charley" never came back, and the bank president would like to have a little conversation with him.

The New York Times has no sympathy with the disappointed proprietors of the Graphic balloon. It figures that the balloon cost no more than $6,000, at the very highest estimate. The fees for admission to the grounds amounted to fully $20,000, and when the disgusted crowd went out, their tickets (not their money) were returned. It is uncertain when the Goodsells will get up the next good sell, although a New York dispatch of the 1st inst. says that the reconstructed balloon Graphic will start on its transatlantic voyage on Saturday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, if the weather is favorable. The gentlemen going in the car are Washington Donaldson, aeronaut, George Ashton Lunt, navigator and artist, and Afred Ford, Graphic correspondent.

When the people began to speak on the subject of back-pay grabs, Hon. John F. Farnsworth, Congressman from Illinois donated $605 25 to Lake county, in his district. A few days since, Gen. Spinner received a letter from the Treasurer of Lake county, inclosing $606 25, and saying that it was sent by direction of the County Board of Supervisors, who propose to contribute the money toward defraying the expenses of the Government. It may be that there is a slight tinge of ostentation in doing business in this way, from which Farnsworth himself, in the first instance, was not free.

With rare sagacity the boarding-house keepers and house owners of Washington City have concluded that if the average Congressman is to receive increased pay he can stand a proportionate advanced charge for accommodations. Accordingly they have raised their prices, making them just one-third more than they were last year. We shall expect to hear next that some repentant legislator has taken advantage of General Spinner's recent ruling to demand the return of his offering made under the stress of public opinion.

John Bright, it is said, is bitterly opposed to the further prosecution of the Ashantee war, and it is also reported that he will resign his position unless it is stopped. The war has been in progress many months, and England seems to be gaining no ground. Economy, perhaps, is the reason that Mr Bright would urge, although it is hinted that he is opposed to the war on principle.

The London Financier says that the business of the Atlantic cables, during the recent panic, averaged $20,000 per day. "All right, De Sauty;" then Field is justified, and the stock pays huge dividends. Meanwhile, its patrons are looking anxiously for a reduction in the tariff. They will look in vain. Rather look for an advance.

The financial crash in Vienna last May is said to have fallen heavily on the Imperial family. The Emperor had speculated considerably on the bourse in years past, and was said to have some heavy lines out at the time of the crash; one of his brothers lost about a million dollars, and, taken altogether, the family has had a hard time of it.

A Yokohama (Japan) correspondent writes under date of September 6th: Mr. De Long, the American Minister, is expecting the arrival of his successor by the next steamer from San Francisco. There is a rumor here, but so far as I can find out, without foundation, that Judge Bingham will take up his residence in Yeddo, instead of at this place. Mr. De Long intends to return to the United States shortly after his successor enters upon the duties of his office.

A gentleman of this city, knowing of the fact, informs us that the richest man in Rockingham county, New Hampshire, or, at least, reported to be the richest, has received an invalid pension for the last sixty years of $240 a year, he having been a soldier of the war of 1812. He has never spent a dollar of the pension, and his wealth is the result of the accumulation of its principal and interest. He is the brother of a distinguished politician whose death many years ago caused a profound sensation throughout the Union.—Newburyport Herald.

A couple of Texas cattle men, at Wichita, Kansas, tired of the everlasting cards and dice of the ordinary gambler, recalled their boyhood's days recently, by playing a game of marbles with 100 steers as the stakes.

It is singular what a little thing will put a man out. A Jersey City lawyer was making a high-flown speech the other day, telling about angels tears, when his Honor said, "Confine your remarks to the dog fight case." The lawyer sat down.

A San Francisco milliner has invented a hat which will probably sell well, in cases where blushing is not so spontaneous as it might be or used to be. When the wearer bows or lowers the head abruptly, a tiny pair of steel clamps compress the arteries on each side of the temples, sending the blood at once to the cheeks.

People who carry $500 Government notes to pay stage fares and do their marketing with, will be glad to read the result of the elaborate comparison of the new counterfeit with the genuine issue. Doubtless there will be a great overhauling of $500 bills this morning. You can tell a newsboy who has got stuck on one of these counterfeits by his thoughtful expression.—N. Y. Tribune.

The passengers of a train on the Cleveland Mount Vernon and Columbus Railroad in Ohio accuse the engineer of a freight train on the Baltimore and Ohio road of deliberately attempting to run into their train at a point where the roads cross in Mount Vernon. They have written a letter detailing the facts to the Attorney-General of the State and the latter will investigate the matter.

Mr. O'Clarence's hens got into the next yard, and scratched up the garden, recently and the woman of the house came in to see Mrs O'Clarence about it, and a war of words ensued. When Mr. O'Clarence came home, Mrs. O'Clarence was terribly excited, and gave him a hysterical account of the affair, winding up with a shower of tears and this triumphant declaration: "Well, I don't care! I had my new alpaca on, anyway, the mean thing."

MISCELLANEOUS.

NIL DESPERANDUM!

Lively Times Ahead!

ISAAC BLUM'S thousand-and-one patrons will be glad to learn that he is again in receipt of those old and favorite private brands, which in flush times used to occasion such a rush to his Cigar Stand, namely the "ESPANOLAS" and "DELICIAS," considered by connoiseurs the best 12 1-2 cent Cigars in the market.

The "OREGON BABY" still flourishes, and this and the "PROGRESS CLUB" Cigars come regularly to hand, and recent invoices are recommended as being of better quality than ever.

Imported Cigars received by every steamer, among these a choice Cigar, (WARRANTED GENUINE HAVANA IMPORTATION,) which will be sold TWO FOR 25 CENTS. These Cigars are NOT very profitable to the seller but they suit the consumer, which is all that is required.

CITY.

To Prevent Cruelty.—At the last meeting of the Common Council, the ordinance for the "Prevention of Cruelty to Animals" came up on its third and final reading. On being placed on its final passage, the ordinance was lost. This rather unexpected action on the part of the Council, surprised the many friends of the ordinance. Numerous of our best citizens, actuated by the most humane motives, have gone forward and organized a Society to prevent and punish many of those shameful cruelties and barbarities which are inflicted by unfeeling, heartless drivers on dumb animals. A few weeks ago the Society filed articles of incorporation, and subsequently organized in permanent form, by the election of officers. An ordinance was drafted at the instance of some of the friends of this very humane, commendable movement, and offered by one of the members of the Common Council. This ordinance was read first and second time. As before stated, it came up on its third and last reading, on Wednesday evening. Just before the vote was taken one of the members called attention to several material defects embodied in the ordinance. The objectionable portions of the ordinance were then briefly discussed. Grave doubts were expressed about the enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance in the event of its passage. Matters had progressed too far at that stage to refer the ordinance to a committee for revision and amendment; so it was determined to put it on its final passage, and vote it down, which was done. Members of the Council who were present spoke in very favorable terms of the passage of an ordinance of that character, if such an one was presented which excluded objectionable features possessed by the former. We learn that an ordinance covering the grounds desired is being drawn up, and will be presented at the next meeting of the Council. Such an ordinance will pass without a dissenting vote. The object of the Council is to pass an ordinance which can be rigorously enforced—an object most d[illegible]able to the society.

Schooner Mila Bond.—Parties who arrived a few days ago from Tillamook, inform us that the schooner Mila Bond is still lying in a helpless condition on the beach, where she was cast some eight months ago. After this vessel was driven on the sand, she was abandoned for a time. Capt. Paul Corno, the master and owner, at length went down to San Francisco, where he obtained sufficient money to repair the damage done the hull, re-rig the schooner and get her afloat again. During the first part of the summer, Capt. Corno began work. Delays followed, but at length the Mila Bond was refitted, and ready to be launched. A few weeks ago she nearly reached the water; but the tide came up suddenly and compelled the men to desist. While the tide was up, it broke the chain by which the vessel was held, and it was carried back and thrown high on the beach. The vessel now lies in a worse condition than before she was repaired, and will probably be abandoned.

Passengers.—The steamer Ajax which sailed from San Francisco on Saturday, brings the following passengers: Capt. J. C. Ainsworth, H. Bloomfield, Mrs. C. M. Carter and child, Geo. Hirsdale, T. B. Dall, Louis Hammond, A. R. Elder and niece, Ben Selling, Dr. W. Shackelford, J. H. Garrigan, W. P. Mitchell, Chas. Myer, Geo. Hearst, J. C. Belden, S. Ehrlich, Mrs. C Lehman, Miss Hockgertel, Mrs. E. G. White, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Miss E. Longfellow, S. Kuhn, F. B. Strong, J. Washburn, S. G. Haynes, wife and family, Mrs. J. Wood, A. J. Jordan, W. McKibben, L. S. Davidson, A. [illegible]nard, S. D. Ives, H. C. Murphy, S. Dinsmore, C. B. Shattuck, R. A. Pruett, K. P. Brasher, H. Adams, E. M. Adams, Miss H. Davis, Mrs. P. Ostrosky, W. T. Clinton and family, P. S[illegible] and wife C. R. White and wife, R. [illegible]wick, Wm. Manning and family, R. F. Walling and wife, G. Newton, F. Johnson.

Oregonian Extra.—The newsboys were on the streets yesterday crying lustily "The Oregonian extra—all about the Modoc execution." Our special correspondent had his copy at the telegraph office in [illegible], but owing to the fact that there was but one operator at Jacksonville, and w[illegible] was occupied in sending [illegible] to Califor[illegible] and the East, his dispatch was [illegible] delayed. He got the line Saturday afternoon, and managed to send the great part of the dispatch, when the line broke and nothing [illegible] be sent through [illegible]. We have the satisfaction of knowing that, although delayed by bad working of the line, the Oregonian was the first [illegible] in the State to issue a lengthy telegraphic account of the execution of Captain Jack and three other Modocs.

The Feast of Tabernacles.—Last evening commenced the Hebrew festival of Tabernacles, according to Lev. xxiii: 34. The festival lasts seven days. The first and last are holy days, and the rest half holy. That is to say, according to the Commandments, necessary work may be done on the half holy days. Booths or tabernacles have been erected near the Synagogues, as a memorial of the Children of Israel when they were journeying in the Wilderness on their way to Palestine.

City Assessor.—The City Assessor, Jas. W. Going, gives notice to the taxpayers of Portland that the time for receiving statements of property will expire on the 27th inst.; after that date no exemptions will be credited, and he will complete his assessments from the best sources obtainable, and for errors then made, recourse may be made to the City Council for relief, when the Assessment Roll is returned in December.

Holder Finished.—At length the finishing strokes of the workmen on the new gas-holder at the corner of Sixth and F streets, has been made. The immense iron tank is finished, bolted and braced, and to-day the water will be admitted to the brick reservoir. All the required connections of mains, etc., have been made. However the gas will not be let into the holder for some time to come.

Another Set.—So active is the demand for woolen fabrics of a fine grade, turned out by the Oregon City Woolen Mills, that Jacobs Bros. find the facilities for the manufacture of such goods at present inadequate. In order to meet the requirements of the trade, they have found it necessary to send east for another set of machinery. This will arrive here in the course of a few weeks.

Making Preparations.—In view of the increased travel to and from the Fair the present week, the Railroad Company is making extra provisions to meet the requirements for that time. Yesterday afternoon four additional passenger coaches were taken down from the car shops to the depot at the east side. This extra number of cars are to be placed on during Fair week.

We observe the names of Capt. O. W. Pollock and wife and Miss Lillie Thompson among the passengers on board the steamer Newbern, which sailed a few days since from San Francisco for the Gulf of Colorado. Capt. Pollock is en route to report for duty at Camp McDowell, accompanied by his wife and sister-in-law, Miss Thompson, who is on a trip for her health.

Still Detained.—The three vessels, Wattenhorn, Windermere and Privateer, loaded with grain and bound for Europe, are still detained inside the bar. These vessels are lying at anchor below Astoria, waiting for a favorable opportunity to pass out. It continues very heavy off. Two vessels have been reported outside the bar, but they have not been able to cross.

The Circus.—The most entertaining performance offered by John Wilson under a circus tent, in this city, was that given on Saturday night. The acts and jokes were mostly new, and all were well done. "Dick Turpin" could scarcely have been produced better under canvas than was the production on the closing night of the circus.

Narrow-Gauge R. R.—It is rumored that certain parties in connection with the O. S. N. Co. are taking the necessary steps towards the organization of a company for the purpose of building a first-class narrow-gauge railroad, with 30 T rail, from Wallula to Walla Walla, in order to meet the requirements of trade of the Walla Walla Valley.

A[illegible] Market.—The usual popular [illegible] at the above place [illegible] by the East Portland [illegible]

Clifton Fishery.—Mr. J. W. Cook, of this city, has gone into the fishery business at this place, a few miles below Westport. Piles have been driven and capped, and the work of erecting a wharf and buildings will be prosecuted with all dispatch. The fishery will have a frontage of one hundred feet by nearly two hundred depth.

Evening Sessions.—A splendid opportunity is afforded young men to acquire a thorough commercial course. Evening sessions will commence this evening at the Commercial College, under the management of DeFrance & James.

Guild Meeting.—There will be a regular meeting held by the members of the Guild of Trinity Parrish this evening at 7 o'clock. The meeting will be held in Trinity Chapel. A full attendance is desired.

Trial Trip.—Only a few more touches from the painter's brush, and the handsome little steamer Beaver will be ready for service, everything else being ready. Wednesday is the day set for the trial trip.

Candidate.—Mr. A. Wendt announces himself a candidate for the office of Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department, subject to the voters of the same at the coming election.

Orient Arrived.—The brig Orient arrived at this port on Saturday evening in tow of the steamer Emma Hayward. She came from San Francisco with a large assorted cargo.

Oregonian at the Fair.—Our friends at the Fairgrounds will be supplied daily by carrier, who will have a plentiful number, so that all may receive copies.

Courts.—The United States Circuit Court and County Court will both convene this morning for the transaction of such business as may be brought before them.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Off for the State Fair.

Beautiful moonlight nights.

Everybody going to the Fair.

Oregonian special ahead of all others.

Gussie Telfair is now due from the Sound.

The California will sail for Sitka next Thursday.

The street cars are doing a lively business on Sundays.

Soon be time to hunt your umbrella and over-shoes.

Crops are all saved, and the farmers are wishing for rain.

Wilson's Circus left yesterday en route for the State Fair.

The tug Ben Holladay came up yesterday from below.

Luna triumphs, and the average street lamplighter is serene.

The little steamer Oneatta paid a visit to Portland yesterday.

Firemen's election is coming on. Candidates will soon be in order.

A handsome residence is moving down C street towards Front.

The Board of Trustees of East Portland will meet this evening.

The evening train yesterday took away a crowd for the State Fair.

The political cauldron will "ebulate" this week—election next Monday.

The steamer Gov. Grover was discharging wheat yesterday at her wharf.

The roads leading to the city are very dusty. Our streets are not much better.

Jack Frost is on the rampage among the fruit crops east of the mountains.

Trains for the Fair will leave at 7:15 A. M., returning will arrive at 7:20 P. M.

The County Clerk is busily engaged in preparing the docket for the Circuit Court.

Want of water in the Upper Wallamet is the most decided drawback to navigation now.

The Ajax will be due here to-morrow evening—if she does not experience adverse winds.

The police made a number of arrests yesterday. There will be a full docket this morning.

The knees for the steamer, to be built by the W. R. T. Co., have been laid above the upper sawmill.

We learn that the bands of Portland propose to compete for the premiums offered at the State Fair.

Full and reliable reports will be furnished our readers every day, of the proceedings of the State Fair.

The contract will soon be let for the rebuilding of an engine house for Vigilance Hook and Ladder Company.

The steamer Idaho is the only boat owned by the O. S. N. Co. which is undergoing repairs at the present.

Vessels lying at the wharves: Steamer California, bark Windward, brig Orient and schooner Katie Heron.

Our news boys awoke echoes about the silent streets yesterday, with cries of "Here's your Oregonian extra."

Wells, Fargo & Co. and the Western Union Telegraph Co. will move to their elegant new building about the 1st proximo.

The Circuit Court will probably not convene until one week from to-morrow, as the special election will come off on Monday.

A young gentleman was arrested yesterday for traveling in a buggy faster than six miles an hour. He interviews the Police Judge this morning.

When shall we have a fire alarm bell and automatic telegraph fire-signal? is one of the prominent and pertinent inquiries now before the public.

Mrs. Prosser, the owner of the first iron mine ever worked in Oregon, and which she sold for $10,000, died about a week ago in Tillamook.

The reporters of the city no longer have a "dead thing" on that Court House wall. It is a thing of the past. The Stark street sewer bids fair to follow in the wake.

Stark street between Front and First will be blockaded until the completion of the sewer to First street, after which new planking will be laid, and then draymen will be happy.

Two bellicose fellows were taken under the kind charge of a friendly officer, for ornamenting each others' countenances. They will have the pleasure of explaining the "little unpleasantness" this morning.

Several fast young men were trying the speed of their teams late on Saturday night in the southern part of the city. The police started for them, but they got off, aided by horse flesh and the struggling moonbeams.

The new version of "Old Uncle Ned" runs in this way, and is sung by the ladies: "Then pull at the wicket and stake, and put by the mallet and the ball; for no more croquet 'll be played, because it's getting too late in the fall."

OUT DOOR SPORTS.

The Pioneers, though they may not turn out there regular nine, will present a strong team; likewise the Pacifics.

Our reporter will give those not attending a report of each game played at the Tournament, and other items in connection with the affair.

The return game between the Pioneers and the Picked Nine that played them on the 27th ult. came off as per announcement, last Saturday afternoon, and proved to be the best game of the season. The time occupied in playing was only one hour and five minutes. At the end of the fifth inning the game was a tie, and finally resulted in favor of the champions by a score of 24 to 8. After the Fair we will give the season's play of all the clubs, showing the number won and lost by each club.

DRAMATIC AND MUSICAL.

Vivian and troupe are billed to appear at Reed's Opera House for the first time to-morrow evening.

The Rosedale troupe are now at the Capital. Nightly entertainments will be furnished during the present week.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Mr. C. M. Carter gives notice that he is ready to collect claims on the United States, and on any State military, naval, Indian claims, "Indian war vouchers," etc., etc.

BOARD OF DELEGATES.

REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DELEGATES OF THE P. F. D.

A regular monthly meeting of the Portland Fire Department was held on Saturday evening at the Police Court rooms, at 7:30 o'clock.

The following members were present: President W. H. Andrus, and Messrs. W. H. Wetsell, B. Mayer, J. W. Whalley, Joseph Sloan, R. Holman, A. B. Hallock and J. F. Good.

The following members of the Board were absent: Messrs. J. L. Davidson, W. A. Holbrook, Wm. Young, E. Wicks, F. M. Arnold, C. W. Parrish and D. C. Lewis.

Mr. Chauncey Ball, the Secretary of the Board, being absent, on motion A. B. Hallock was chosen Secretary pro tem.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

The oath of office having been administered by the Secretary to J. P. Wilcox, delegate-elect from Tiger Company No. 5, vice Mr. Delschneider, resigned, he took his seat.

The report of the Secretary for the month of September was read and placed on file.

A communication from the Secretary of Willamette Co. No. 1, asking for certificates of membership for J. D. Smith, L. Therklesen, Alfred Church, Wm. Showers, R. Robertson, and L. Wilhelm, was read. On motion the request was granted.

A communication was read from the Secretary of Protection Co. No. 4, asking for certificates of membership for R. A. Habersham, and John Adams. The petition was granted.

The report of the Committee on Rules, in reference to the amendment of regulations of the Department, was read and adopted.

On motion, R. Holman was appointed a committee of one to petition the Common Council to purchase, for the use of the Fire Department, two hundred badges for active firemen, and one hundred badges for exempt firemen.

Application of Ed. D. Backinstos, asking for an exempt certificate, was referred to the Committee on Certificates.

On motion the rules were suspended, and the Committee on Certificates reported in favor of the granting of an exempt certificate to Ed. D. Backinstos, which report was adopted.

On motion the Board adjourned.

COOS BAY ITEMS.

Our valued correspondent at Empire City writes as follows, letter bearing date of Sept. 30th:

Coal shipment, past week, 1,000 tons—lumber 175 M feet.

A hook and ladder company is being organized at Marshfield.

A Chinese cigar factory has been established here by one Tom King.

The Coos Bay News has adopted the "patent outside," which has enabled the publisher to enlarge the paper.

An effort is being made by Mr. H. H. Luse to organize an academy at this place. The move meets with favor.

The only arrival for the past week was the steamer Eastport; sailed, schooners Arago, Elida and steamer Eastport.

The steamer Eastport, on her last trip from San Francisco, brought over 100 passengers, among which were 12 families from the Western States looking for homes here.

That popular organization, the O. G. T. Club, gave an entertainment at Newport last Saturday evening to a full house. Itinerant shows may give Coos Bay a wide berth while the Club exists.

Capt. W. H. Troup has returned with the machinery for the new river steamer which is intended for the Coos Bay trade in opposition to the Satellite. The engines are from the old steamer Esmeralda which was built at Stockton, Cal., and afterwards taken to the Colorado river. The boiler was made at San Francisco. In about a month the boat will be running.

Last Tuesday evening a man by the name of Willson went down to the Indian ranch below town, and got into a row with the Indians. He came out second best. He was cut in seven or eight places. One cut across the back was about 14 inches long, and about 1½ deep. His wounds were dressed by Dr. Tower, and he is now doing well. Tanglefoot is supposed to be the cause of the trouble. The Sheriff and several deputies went down to the ranch to arrest the Indians, and by some misunderstanding ten or a dozen shots were fired by the whites and Indians at each other, but it being dark nobody was hurt. The Indians surrendered, were locked up in jail, and, on examination before the Justice next day, they were discharged for want of evidence. Thus ended the war.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN HALL.

BUDDINGTON'S STATEMENT.

A New York dispatch of the 1st instant says:

Captain Buddington gives a brief account of Hall's death. He says: "On the 24th Captain Hall returned, having reached a bay which he called 'Newman's Bay.' Not long after his return Captain Hall was taken seriously ill and said his disease was apoplexy. For two weeks he continued in bad health, but now and again he would rally and appear well, and then relapse suddenly. On the morning of the 8th he died, and on the 10th we buried him half a mile to the south of the observatory. We were now in a peculiarly embarrassing condition, but I considered it still our duty to press toward the North Pole. In consequence of some little differences which had occurred before Captain Hall's death, as well as from the novel position in which we now found ourselves, the harmony which had previously prevailed was now more than once seriously broken. On the 13th of November Dr. Bessels drew up a paper, and he asked me to sign it, which I did. It was a repetition of the instructions given by the Naval Department to Captain Hall, providing that I should continue as the sailing and ice master, and control and direct the movements of the vessel, Dr. Bessels to continue chief of the scientific corps." The paper concluded as follows: "It is our honest intention to honor our flag, and to hoist it upon the most northern point of the earth." Buddington desired (denied?) the separation from the Lyon party, and says: "We kept an anxious look out all the time from the mast head of our vessel for signs of the party, but the sharpest eyes on shipboard sailed to see aught of them. As, however, they had the boats, even to the little scow, we were in hopes they would possibly be able yet to make for us."

A Romantic Incident.—The Union Democrat of the 27th contains the marriage of Henry Pooley, of Tuolumne county, and Miss Catherine Oates, of Cornwall, England. The ceremony was performed at the Sonora Hotel on the 23d inst. The bride had traveled seven thousand miles to meet her lover, whom she had not seen for eight years. When but a few miles remained to be gone over, the stage upset, and a delay of several hours followed. The brave girl reached her destination at midnight, and there in the strange place she found her lover and the minister waiting. To unpack her trunk, don her bridal robes, and listen to the ceremony which made her a wife, were the incidents of but a few moments.

Terra Haute, Indiana, has a genuine sensation. The grand jury has indicted Rev. Parker Milligan, pastor of the United Brethren Church, a member of the Common Council, and a man worth $60,000 or more, for forging the name of a prominent citizen recently deceased to a receipt for $180. His friends say it is all a mistake; Mr. Milligan himself preached on Sunday, as usual, and made no allusion to the matter.

Governor Dix has made taxpayers happy by vetoing the newspaper claims bill, a dodge to get out of the city and county of New York nearly a million dollars for newspapers, some of which had only a temporary existence and many no city circulation, for work which in many cases was not ordered and in some cases not done.

Egall, Lowenstein & Co., recently burned out by the great fire, have removed their stock of Carpets, Curtains, Coverings, etc. to No. 87 FRONT STREET, between Washington and Alder, where they can be found, selling off the entire stock AT COST, in order to start soon in new quarters with an Entire New Stock. All persons indebted to them are requested to call at their temporary place of business and settle up.

New Opening.—Messrs. Hurgren & Shindler have opened at the corner of Front and Alder streets. A full stock of furniture, etc., on hand—more being added daily.

Parson's Purgative Pills will greatly relieve, if not entirely cure, dispepsia when everything else fails. They have been tried in some desperate cases, and have given more relief than any other medicine.

PERSONAL.

N. P. Langford left St. Paul on the 9th inst. for Montana, California and Oregon, to examine the condition of National Banks. So says the St. Paul Pioneer.

Capt. J. C. Ainsworth is among the passengers on board the Ajax. He is on his return from a visit east on important business connected with the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Among the personages on board the steamer Ajax we observe the name of Fred. R. Strong. This young gentleman is a son of Judge William Strong, of Portland. He has just completed a course of legal study at the Law University at Albany, New York.

Mr. J. H. Garrigan, the well known artist of East Portland, is on the incoming steamer. Mr. Garrigan left here some time ago with the intention of traveling over portions of California, and to make sketches of the scenery. During his absence he has visited Yosemite, the Big Trees, Calistoga, Lake Tahoe, and other places of interest. After his arrival here he will transfer his numerous sketches to canvas at his leisure.

Prof. John D. White, late of Manchester, Ky., a reader and elocutionist of acknowledged merit, will arrive from the Dalles this evening. He will probably give an entertainment in Portland in a few days. An exchange says, in speaking of Mr. White as a reader: "Although not an experienced, first class elocutionist, many of his readings were really excellent and afforded much pleasure to his audiences. His voice is excellent and very well cultivated, and the gentleman will by experience become a very superior reader."

Every mother should see that her darling boy is well clothed for the winter. Messrs. BECK & WALDMAN make a specialty of selling Youths' clothing, and have a complete stock on hand. The prices are fixed to suit those who wish to economize. They have a full line of gentlemen's fall suits, and everything in furnishing goods. They give satisfaction to all. Be sure to recollect this well known firm.

Many valuable horses die from the effects of colic. The best thing to do in a case of this kind is to pour a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment into a long-necked junk bottle, add half pint of molasses and water, then pour the whole down the horse's throat. In ten minutes the horse will begin to eat.

VANCOUVER ITEMS.

Politics are decidedly dull in Vancouver—nothing to ruffle the placid surface.

The roof is being put on the Sisters' building. The Mansard seems to have been abandoned.

Grain is still pouring into Vancouver. Farmers are anxious to dispose of their wheat while prices are reasonable.

The roads leading into the country are becoming exceedingly dusty. On the Brush Prairie road there is a constant stream of travel, and the fine dust in places is six inches deep.

A brick foundation is being put under St. Luke's Church in place of the wooden piles first put under. It is the intention to ceil a portion of the interior before cold weather comes on if the money can be raised.

Frank Caples, who had a limb amputated last spring, is now very sick with pneumonia. The disease which made amputation necessary so reduced the system that he had not recovered when this last disease prostrated him. He is now in a critical condition.

COLEMAN'S EUCALYPTUS

Dr. J. S. Coleman's Compound Extract of Eucalyptus is a preparation combining all the valuable medical qualities of the Eucalyptus, which is cultivated in nearly every California garden for its [illegible], [illegible] become the household remedy for all diseases of the KIDNEYS, BLADDER and URINARY CANAL, and SEMINAL WEAKNESS. It seems to have a direct affinity for the GENITO-URINARY ORGANS and their surroundings, and cures them by its alterative, healing and balsamic properties more effectually than any other known remedy.

It is an invaluable remedy for all diseases of the mucous and serous membranes, such as BRONCHITIS, HACKING COUGH, NAUSEA DURING PREGNANCY, DYSPEPSIA, LEUCORRHŒA, etc.

This preparation is the result of Dr. Coleman's experiments with the medicinal properties of the tree in the U. S. Marine Hospital in San Francisco, in 1871 and 1872, where he had unusual facilities for [illegible] the various methods of preparing the remedy, and its uses. It can be relied upon as certain to give the [illegible] results, and hundreds of testimonials of its efficacy can be seen at his office, 605 Ke[illegible] St., San Francisco.

COLEMAN'S DOUBLE EXTRACT OF EUCALYPTUS is a powerful, yet harmless, febrifuge, and is a special preparation for the treatment of the malarious fevers of our interior valleys, and is warranted to cure any case of FEVER AND AGUE treated with it according to directions, while the baneful results of the usual Quinine and arsenical remedies of those diseases are entirely avoided.

FOR PHYSICIANS, Coleman's Fluid Extract of Eucalyptus in 1-lb bottles.

EUCALYPTUS Beware of imitations, and take none but COLEMAN'S. For sale everywhere, and by HODGE, CALEF & CO., Wholesale Druggists, Portland, Sole Agents for Oregon.

THE LATEST PRIZE FIGHT

ALLEN THE WINNER IN SEVEN ROUNDS AND TWENTY MINUTES—A BEASTLY DISPLAY OF MUSCLE AND SCIENCE—THE VANQUISHED PUGILIST BADLY WHIPPED

[Correspondence [illegible]]

St Louis September 23 At half past 6 o'clock this morning, the steamer [illegible] with 1,000 persons on board left for the great prize fight. The day was [illegible] and left nothing to be desired. The boat went 1 mile up the river to Chateau's Island where a landing was effected and a ring pitched in a grove where the men were [illegible] shielded from the sun. McCoole won the toss and selected the southeast corner. His seconds were Arthur Chambers and [illegible] Shepard for Allen, Tom Kelly and Dublin Tricks for McCoole. There was considerable discussion about a referee and, after a delay of nearly an hour, Jack Looney was selected, [illegible] to serve. Dick Roach [illegible] was umpire for Allen and [illegible] for McCoole. At 2:25 McCoole

SHIED HIS CASTOR INTO THE RING

An [illegible] followed close after it. He was loudly cheered as he seated himself in his corner. In a very few minutes, Tom Allen's silk cap came sailing into the ring and Allen himself came after it. He wore white flannel drawers and white stockings with blue trimmings. His shoes were of calf skin and laced half way up. He had trained till there was

NOT A POUND OF SUPERFLUOUS FLESH

On his body, and his muscles stood out like whipcord. His hands and face were the color of [illegible], and the brightness and clearness of his eyes and the freshness of his complexion was the subject of general remark. He had a [illegible] and jaunty air, and danced a jig while the [illegible] question was being decided. When McCoole came to strip the disparity in the size of the two men was astonishingly evident. Allen fought at 175 pounds, having [illegible] from 210. McCoole stood 200 last [illegible], and had trained himself down to 190. McCoole wore white drawers and stockings and his sash was of green. Both men looked

IN MAGNIFICENT CONDITION

And were fine specimens of humanity. McCoole looked a little flabby, and seemed to [illegible] in his face. His skin was [illegible] in color, and his short hair and [illegible] face made him look like an old man. When they met in the center of the ring McCoole wanted to bet his opponent $1,000 that he [illegible] win the fight. Allen said that he had $800, but would put that up, and did [illegible] the customary hand shaking

THE BATTLE BEGAN

[illegible] rounds were fought the fight lasting twenty minutes. Allen came off without a [illegible] or a bruise of any consequence. McCoole was very badly punished, and was taken [illegible] grounds bruised and gasping. His [illegible] lip was completely cut through, his left [illegible], his right eye nearly shut, his nose [illegible], and his face mashed all up. Allen was [illegible] and lively all through the fight, [illegible] about like a rubber ball and dodging [illegible], while McCoole stood up and [illegible] blows like a sand bag. Allen talked [illegible] about him while doing his work, and in [illegible] an attempt to trip him by Kelly, made [illegible] at that gentleman and said he could [illegible] any man in the ring. Kelly said he [illegible] whip him in an hour for $1,000

FIRST ROUND

[illegible] walked promptly up to the [illegible] at the call of time. McCoole stood [illegible] left guard well extended and his right [illegible]. Allen struck a formidable attitude [illegible] both hands well down and drawn in [illegible] attitude they eyed each other [illegible] and a little feinting and sparring. Allen led with his left, and [illegible] a blow on McCoole's left eye and one [illegible]. McCoole [illegible] ring on the [illegible] followed, and terrible [illegible] ensued. Allen punishing the [illegible] about the face and finally [illegible] him down, amid [illegible] of "Foul!" [illegible] claimed that Allen struck [illegible] after he dropped. The foul was disallowed, but first blood was claimed and allowed for Allen. Time, two minutes

SECOND ROUND

When time was called the men hastily came to the mark. Allen [illegible] led with his left, [illegible] a terrible blow on McCoole's [illegible]. McCoole endeavored to counter, but [illegible] was a failure. Allen then planted [illegible] on his opponent's left cheek, [illegible] two [illegible], one under the right eye [illegible] on the [illegible]. Both fought to a close. [illegible] short-arm fighting was indulged in, [illegible] all [illegible] the ring, [illegible] from Albion keeping cunningly away [illegible] rally followed. McCoole [illegible] Allen to the southwest corner. Terrific [illegible] followed, and Allen fell to avoid

THIRD ROUND.

McCoole came up bleeding fearfully from his face. His right eye was evidently lost, and he had apparently lost confidence in himself, as he did not appear to be [illegible] to defend himself from Allen's terrible onslaught, or to return the blows showered [illegible]. McCoole rushed at Allen and [illegible] a heavy blow in his ribs. Allen retal[iated] [illegible] one blow on the cheek and two [illegible] in the mouth. A terrific struggle followed. Both men fought each other [illegible] determined pluck. Allen's movements [illegible] agile as those of a feather, and he continued [illegible]. McCoole rushed at Allen but [illegible] dodged his furious deliveries. A [illegible] rally followed and both men broke [illegible]. Allen planted three consecutive [illegible] on the nose and two on the mouth [illegible] on the ribs. Both men [illegible] to a close, and Allen achieved a [illegible] fall. Time 3 minutes

[illegible] the men were carried to their corners it [illegible] evident that Allen had the fight in his own hands. McCoole was bleeding profusely, and the long hair on his huge breast was [illegible] with gore. Allen did not bear [illegible] scratch, and smiled confidently as he [illegible] seconds in the rubbing-down process

FOURTH ROUND

On Allen coming to the mark Kelly rushed up to [illegible] and exclaimed: "You've got rosin in [illegible]" claiming a foul at the same [illegible]. Allen smilingly rubbed his palms, and [illegible] up to the referee, denying the allegation. [illegible] Looney ordered the men to fight on. [illegible] led off with his terrific left, and [illegible] terrible blow on McCoole's cheek. The [illegible] tried to counter but failed. A [illegible] exchange followed, and Allen fought McCoole to the ropes and knocked him down by another fearful left-hander on the jugular. McCoole being carried to his corner a bleeding [illegible] of corrupt humanity. First knock-down claimed and allowed for Allen amid enthusiastic [illegible] from Allen's corner. The McCoolites were greatly depressed at the result of this round and the horrible manner in which their favorite was being punished. Cries of "foul" were raised during this round by Allen's friends, it being claimed that he was struck while down

FIFTH ROUND

This was the most hotly-contested round of the battle. Upon going to the scratch Allen's body bore signs of McCoole's body-blows while the latter was fearfully mangled about the face. He was bleeding profusely from the effect of Allen's handiwork. Allen forced the fighting and planted blow after blow on the giant's already damaged frontispiece. He stood the storm and tried to stay the terrible attacks of his adversary but all to no purpose, for Allen dashed away right and left at the lump of beef that bore no evidence of ever having been the face of a human being. Allen finally dropped to avoid a blow and McCoole endeavored to fall on top of him but Tom adroitly glided away. McCoole and friends, seeing that bar accident their man was bound to lose, endeavored to create a disturbance, but it was quickly checked

SIXTH ROUND

Allen once more led off with his cunning left, and got in the most wicked blow of the fight on McCoole's mouth, the blood spurting out in a clotted stream. This round was merely a repetition of the former one. [illegible] McCoole and punishment. During it [illegible] claimed that Tricks [illegible] and remarked that it was done again. Blake would suffer. Kelly retorted that if Allen hit Blake, Kelly would go for him. This brought up Allen's dander and he asserted that he could lick any man in the ring for $500. This banter was meant for Kelly and that worthy asserted that Allen couldn't whip him in an hour for $2,000. Nothing came of the chaff although it was feared that a general row would occur while it was going on

SEVENTH ROUND

When time was called, McCoole presented a horrible appearance and hardly seemed capable of holding up his hands. His left eye was closed, a terrible cut was under his right eye, the right side of his upper lip was almost cut off and his nose was broken. Before toeing the mark Allen remarked "It's a sin to send that man up to be punished. If you don't take him away I'll disfigure him for life. He's the gamest man I ever met." The crowd yelled "Take him away, take him away." The round was gone through with Allen refraining from punishing his opponent further. The fight [illegible] in [illegible] twenty minutes, and when time was [illegible] for the eighth round [illegible] a white handkerchief [illegible] in token of [illegible] defeat. The contest [illegible] exactly twenty minutes and at its [illegible] McCoole and Allen shook hands in the center of the ring

HOW TO MAKE SCALPS FOR THE SCALPLESS

The New York Herald of Sept [illegible] contains the following:

New Haven, Conn Sept [illegible]

To the Editor of the Herald:

For [illegible] past a process in surgery [illegible] been [illegible] here attracting much attention. During the early part of August Mrs Ann Farley employed in Davies' shirt factory was unfortunate enough to bring her head in contact with a swift revolving shaft. The set screws caught in her hair and almost instantly her head was bereft of its flowing locks and of the flesh which propagated them. For a time it was thought the poor woman must die for mental derangement and great physical prostration followed the scalping. After a while however, the surgeons employed adjusted the scalp where nature designed it to be, but they only succeeded in demonstrating that a scalp once taken from the head could not by any aid of man be made to attach itself again. The patient had ample opportunities during the period following the accident to coincide with that view. The agony she suffered can not be told in words. The friends of Mrs Farley were anxious to have the hair restored and to please them she submitted to the treatment in question. The surgeons Drs Smith and Park determined to do what they could and accordingly set at work. They took small portions of flesh from the arms of such as were willing to make the sacrifice and applied them to the head of the patient. A few days sufficed to cause them to knit and grow. This operation has been performed over forty times, flesh being taken from as many different persons, and the lady now has much more than one half a scalp with good prospects of getting a whole one. The parties contributing the flesh say the pain attendant on the cutting is insignificant, and after an irritation of but short duration the skin grows over the wound and "Richard is himself again." Forty persons can point with pride to the cranium of Mrs Farley and say "A piece of my flesh adorns that head." When flesh is wanted the doctors advertise the fact and the rush as was witnessed Tuesday, is immense. It is yet too early to determine whether Mrs Farley will live or die from the effects of the injury. The operations through which she is now passing is a novel one was never before adopted here, and by reason of its novelty plenty of applicants are daily found willing and anxious to contribute their mite to the general reconstruction of the sufferer's head. Yours &c F H NASH

Some European capitalists in company with a few prominent citizens of Poughkeepsie are about to engage in the iron manufacturing business in that city. The capital employed will amount to several millions and steel rails and iron work for railway and bridge building purposes will be the staple products

Liverpool Wheat, 12s 7d@12s 9d club, 13s@1[illegible] 2d.

The fact that politics and the annual Fairs throughout the country are taking up so much attention at present accounts for the apparent lack of interest and animation in financial circles at present. All the farmers whose necessities were pressing them to dispose of their surplus grain have done so. Exporters also supplied their immediate needs and are now awaiting developments in other markets besides being somewhat short in the matter of funds so that in the line of wheat but little is doing except getting the purchases of September to tide water. In other lines of trade a fair degree of activity exists and merchants are generally satisfied with the business of the fall season so far. The stocks on hand here of imported merchandise are much smaller than of many former years as owing to the limited trade done last year men were disposed rather to keep up only a full supply of seasonable goods and not run a risk of carrying large stocks into next year on a high interest. Local money matters though generally close are by no means so stringent as last spring while all expect more immediate relief than could reasonably have been looked for at that time

Home Produce Market

Our produce market exhibited rather more activity to-day than previously for a week. The large receipts of grain have about taken up all the available storeroom, and it is probable that some diminution will occur until after the State Fair. By that time it is hoped some of the vessels [illegible] will have arrived and part of the stocks here be got off. The fruit crop of Oregon this year is very large and some idea of the vast quantities to come may be formed from the considerable lots that are already reaching our market. In Bacon Butter Eggs etc the market continues to be well supplied without any material change in prices since our last review. The demand for shipment to northward ports is active but limited while to San Francisco the call is dull, prices there not justifying any extra expense in transportation

We are glad to note the fact that Oregon wheat stands at the top of the market in California bringing the highest figures and selling most readily when brought into direct competition with the wheat of our sister State. Our market has lately received considerable lots of wheat from Washington Territory and Eastern Oregon via the Columbia river a trade which it behooves the merchants of Portland to take some precautions to hold

LYON'S KATHAIRON

Only 50 Cents per Bottle.

It promotes the GROWTH, PRESERVES the COLOR, and increases the Vigor and BEAUTY of the HAIR.

OVER THIRTY YEARS AGO LYON'S KATHAIRON FOR THE HAIR was first placed in the market by Professor E Thomas Lyon, a graduate of Princeton College. The name is derived from the Greek KATHRO signifying to cleanse, purify, rejuvenate or restore. The favor it has received and the popularity it has obtained, is unprecedented and incredible. It increases the GROWTH and BEAUTY of the HAIR. It is a delightful dressing. It eradicates dandruff. It prevents the Hair from turning gray. It keeps the head cool and gives the hair a rich soft glossy appearance. It is the SAME in QUANTITY and QUALITY as it was over a QUARTER of a CENTURY AGO and is sold by all Druggists and Country Stores at only 50 Cents per Bottle

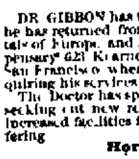
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents guardians friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send [illegible] immediately to DR GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz. Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

Married Men,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DR. GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Cured at Home

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells Fargo & Co a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and breamen too lazy to work at their trades, such as tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat disease that he proposes to cure

Address DR J F GIBBON, 623 Kearney street corner Commercial San Francisco. Postoffice Box 1957.

REMEMBER TO PUT "BOX 1957" ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

☞Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the DAILY OREGONIAN j[illegible]
